

history theatre

History Theatre entertains, educates, and inspires through creating, developing, and producing new and existing works that explore Minnesota's past and the diverse American experience. Its work provides a unique lens which links our past to the present, explores our common heritage, and illuminates our understanding of what it means to be American.

Position Title FRONT OF HOUSE INTERN

Position Summary

The smooth running of the Front of the House makes the experience for theater patrons an enjoyable one. An internship in this area could include a combination of the areas below.

Areas of interest

- Assisting the Audience Development Director
- Facilitating morning matinees for student groups
- Merchandise / concessions / bar management
- Working in the box office during daytime hours
- Volunteer coordinating
- Audience development activities
- Archives
- Data management
- Team building exercises
- Other areas of interest to you

Value to the Intern

Front of House Interns can expect to enter a dynamic environment where they will be involved in learning about the inner workings of a running theatre and gain real-world experience in sales and customer service

Time Commitment & Additional Information

This internship is available during the Fall, Winter and Spring.
Candidates should be able to commit at least 8 consecutive weeks.
Interns will be expected to commit between 8-16 hours per week.
Parking and transportation costs are the responsibility of the Intern.

Contact

Jill Boon, Audience Services Manager, 651-292-4323 x102, volunteer@historytheatre.com