

Fancy Dancer

By Larissa FastHorse
Directed by Laura Leffler

Sept 12-Oct 4, 2026

Lara/Larissa is a misfit in rural South Dakota—Half-Native, Half-White, weighed down by physical limitations—until a photo of Maria Tallchief introduces her to dance, which cracks her world wide open. Based on the author’s true story, Fancy Dancer is a rich, multigenerational experience that speaks to the power of storytelling and the beauty of finding your own community.

Café Au Lait

By Vinecia Coleman
Directed by Faye Price

April 3-25, 2027

Nellie Francis, a Black Suffragist from St. Paul in the 1920s, appeals to “History” to have her story forever etched in his book. But to see her mission through, there is one rule she cannot break: thou shalt not be mean to History. With the help of the History Players, Nellie tries to straddle the line between making History happy and protecting her own truth. This comedic play with music explores the Minnesota Suffrage movement through the eyes of Black women.

America’s Very First Play

By Four Humors Theater
Directed by Laura Leffler

May 22-June 13, 2027

Virginia, 1665. Three American colonists stand trial charged with “wickedness” for writing and performing the very first play in the colonies. Four Humors Theater presents a reimagining of every actor’s dream, to perform in a hit play, followed by every producer’s nightmare, to be arrested on suspicion of witchcraft.
