

LIVE AUCTION PACKAGES

1 - Lake Minnetonka Sunset Boat Ride

Join History Theatre Artistic Director, Ron Peluso, and A Prairie Home Companion's Sue Scott for a two-hour tour under the sunset skies of Lake Minnetonka. Aboard this 36 foot, 1957 Chris Craft yacht, Captain Jim Wilson and Skip Hackney, you and three friends will explore miles of shoreline. You will also enjoy delicious food and cool beverages while experiencing the natural beauty and elegant splendor of this historic lake that has attracted people from around the country from writers to recreation enthusiasts for over 150 years.

2 - In-Home Wine Tasting & Music Package

Harry Chalmiers, President of McNally Smith College, formerly Director of MacPhail Center for Music and VP at Berklee College of Music, Boston, is offering a 45-minute solo performance in your home for 20 guests. Harry is an acclaimed singer/songwriter and guitarist who performs his own original work along with favorites from Bob Dylan, John Lennon, and others. You and your guests will also enjoy wine served up by true Francophile and Twin Cities legendary musician Chris Osgood. Chris's company, Vins de Campagne, imports extraordinary wines of Southwest France to Minnesota.

3 - Cabo San Lucas Getaway

Cabo San Lucas, Mexico is where the seas, sun, and desert join at the farthest tip of the Baja Peninsula, between the Gulf of California and the Pacific Ocean. Experience it for yourself with a one week stay in Ross Kramer's beautiful, two bedroom, ocean-front condominium. Cabo offers something for everyone, from a fun family vacation to a romantic get-away. Whether exploring beautiful beaches or exciting nightlife, Cabo San Lucas has plenty of recreational activities including world-class golf courses, marine life and scuba diving, horseback riding, and fine ocean-side dining.

4 - History Theatre's Directors Dinner

Pull back the curtain on the local theater scene. You and up to eight of your friends will be entertained in your own home with stories from History Theatre's Artistic Director Ron Peluso and four other accomplished directors who will talk about their work: IVEY Award-winner Joel Sass, nationally recognized director Marion McClinton,

Ten Thousand Things Theater's Artistic Director Michelle Hensley, and John Miller-Stephany, Associate Artistic Director of The Guthrie Theater for 19 years. Dinner will be prepared by Lunds/Byerly's high-end catering.

5 - Timeshare: Royal Aloha Vacation Club Package

Imagine having your own home in paradise—that's what your stay will feel like. Your prize is one week in a one bedroom condo with kitchen and pool or beach access. You will have the difficult choice of where to go from seven destinations: Spain (Nueva Andalucia, Marbella), Hawaii (Waikiki, Kona, or Maui), Lake Tahoe, Chandler, Arizona; Aranson, Missouri; Otter Rock, Oregon; Mexico (Acapulco). Note: Must travel prior to March 1, 2016.

6 - Chain of Lakes Driving Tour & Chef-Prepared Classic Italian Dinner for Four Package

Tour Lakes Harriet, Calhoun and Lake of the Isles in an all-electric Tesla S 60 chauffeured by host Phil Riveness. Return to Phil's house for a champagne toast to the History Theatre. Chef Alejandro Victoria, chef and owner of Restaurant Victoria Amore, will prepare a five-course classic Italian dinner. He will invite guests into the kitchen to observe some of the preparation.

7 - Glensheen Halloween for Two

The mansion, the mystery, and now the musical! Spend the Halloween weekend experiencing all things Glensheen. You and your partner will attend the world premiere of History Theatre's Glensheen in October. Playwright Jeffrey Hatcher and composer Chan Poling take on the story of the infamous Duluth estate. Then head up to Duluth to enjoy breathtaking views of Lake Superior while relaxing in the comfort of a night at the award-winning Solglimt Lakeshore Bed & Breakfast. But before you turn in, take a flashlight tour of the Congdon Mansion. The weekend also includes a delicious dinner at the Black Woods Bar and Grill and the not-to-be-missed gourmet breakfast at Solglimt.

Auction led by Glen Fladeboe of Fladeboe Auctions